European Office in Mainz, Germany

Greetings from Mainz!

We, the European Office, are incredibly glad to welcome our new fourth partner, the University of North Carolina Wilmington (UNCW), to our International Student Office.

Located at the beautiful East Coast of the USA, UNCW perfectly completes our office including National University (San Diego/L.A.) at the West Coast of the USA, ICMS, Sydney in Australia and Vancouver Island University (VIU) in Canada.

The biggest advantage of the International Student Office is the constant communication with our colleagues abroad in order to support our partners in Europe and to provide students with the most important information.

I went to UNCW myself and had a wonderful time: relaxing walks at the stunning Wrightsville Beach, which is only 15 bike minutes away from campus, watching the sun rise over the Atlantic Ocean - absolutely magical - and stopping for a caffè latte at one of the many cozy coffee shops to get the day started.

Taking my first steps across the traditional American campus of UNCW, I was very impressed by its size, the beautiful brick buildings along the alleys as well as the scenic parks. The campus provides the typical American student lifestyle – a welcoming feel-good atmosphere. One more perk: Due to the great weather at the East Coast of North Carolina, you meet most students outdoors in the parks on campus, studying, relaxing, cycling, or working out.

Sabine Sachs, Head of the International Student Office

Especially the large gym with its basketball courts, the running court on the first floor, the in- and outdoor pools and the climbing wall invites everyone to join in and take part in the countless sporting opportunities at UNCW – a perfect way to get in touch with other students, too.

Shortly after arriving on campus, I experienced the legendary Wilmington warmth: The international office at UNCW welcomed me and I gained deep insight into a typical day of an international student at UNCW, including tours of lecture halls and the library.

To put a perfect end to this exciting day, I strolled along the historic city center of Wilmington and enjoyed a cocktail and live music at the waterfront with view of the famous battleship “North Carolina”.

I am absolutely convinced that UNCW will complete our office perfectly and that all students studying in Wilmington will not only receive an outstanding academic education, but will also enjoy one of the greatest experiences of their lives!

Have fun reading about our four universities. My team and I are happy to assist you with any questions.

Warm regards

Sabine Sachs

Vancouver Island University (VIU) is a very popular study destination among both Canadian and international students due to its wide range of study options, small class sizes and the fantastic location at Canada's West Coast.

VIU is one of British Columbia's most attractive universities and provides the ideal study environment with individual support, dynamic exchanges between students and lecturers, and state-of-the-art equipment. The currently 16,000 students at Vancouver Island University also benefit from an eclectic as well as specialized course offer with class sizes of 34 students maximum. Various student clubs and service facilities such as the Writing and Math Centre support international students and allow for their integration. Vancouver Island University encourages students to explore their potential, discover more about their world, and excel in both life and learning.

The dreamlike landscape and incredible natural beauty on Vancouver Island add to make students' time at VIU an unforgettable experience.

»I had a wonderful time and I would strongly recommend and encourage anyone who is considering to study abroad to do it. I was impressed by Canada. Vancouver Island is such a beautiful place. Canadians are very friendly. I met great people and made new friends for life. I don't want to miss this experience and enjoy thinking back.«

Julia B.

»My semester abroad at VIU was a great adventure. I improved my English language skills and broadened my horizon in various directions. I met the nicest people in Canada and was able to enjoy the most breathtaking nature - On campus as well as on my way home to my host family.«

Laura G.

»Aside from the view on top of Mt. Benson, the VIU library gives you the most beautiful view over Nanaimo. The urge to explore this beautiful scenery makes it even harder to motivate yourself to study. Your brain will switch to English very quickly, if you are travelling with Canadians and other study abroad students from all over the world. It is sheer impossible not to enjoy your time in Canada!«

»Studying abroad in the USA is a great opportunity to get to know the country, the culture and many great people. Today, I am still in touch with many international friends from my time abroad. I like the one-course-per-month format at National University, because it allows you to focus on one course at a time.«

Maximilian G.

»Studying in San Diego and living the Californian way of life was a great experience. Besides the improvement of my academic and language skills the manageable number of lectures also enabled me to learn and understand more about the country and its people.«

Steffen B.

»Studying abroad at National University is very diverse and I like that the students come from all over the world. This taught me a lot about different cultures. San Diego itself is a wonderful city and most people are very active spending a lot of their time outdoors since the weather is great. Everybody will find something fun to do!«
