WHY

Event Management?

Events don't just happen; they are staged to get the best mileage for a brand or artist, and fantastic events are those spoken about, tweeted about and written about long after they have been sold out.

Great event managers are the puppet masters behind unforgettable experiences, orchestrating every detail of an event from brainstorming at the conception stage to popping the champagne at the after-party.

If you have a flair for the fantastic, are a great team player who also has initiative and the ability to work independently and efficiently, an ICMS Bachelor of Event Management is your VIP ticket to a career that will be all about showcasing the extraordinary.

Event Management can be demanding, and you will be at the heart of the action of events running the gamut from society weddings to Olympic opening ceremonies. Juggling many balls while running at a rapid pace isn't something everyone can achieve, but those who do will reap the rewards in a career that is dynamic and exciting.

Your DEGREE AT A GLANCE

including

1,200 hours

of industry training related to your degree. Get a head start with professional networking and acquire real work skills to give you a competitive edge.

The ICMS Bachelor of Event Management is your backstage pass to a professional business career in event management. From business events including meetings, exhibitions and conferences to social events including weddings, festivals and fashion parades – a professional event manager can make any event look seamless. By studying one of Australia's leading event management degrees at ICMS, you will learn the strategic management, practical and personal skills that will make you an outstanding event professional. Our close connections with the industry and our reputation as event management experts will give you the start you need to excel in your career.

When you study with us you experience our next generation education. At ICMS we believe in a curriculum that blends a thorough understanding of the theoretical principles of management with innovations in hands-on, practical education. You will manage real events with real clients. From conceptualising and pitching the event, to promotion and production, management and evaluation, you will experience every aspect of event management. The project management skills you gain are easily transferrable to other sectors of business including marketing, business development and public relations, giving you a truly versatile degree.

DEGREE STRUCTURE

Degree length: 3 years full time

With a Bachelor of Event Management you will be industry ready. You will combine business and management studies, specialised event subjects and up to 1,200 hours of industry training in 3 years of full-time study (or equivalent part time).

It all starts with some seriously experienced lecturers and industry professionals who come from across the globe to give you a truly international perspective of the industry. First you will learn about the critical elements of staging an event from design, logistics and production to marketing and sponsorship. This prepares you for your industry training, typically taken at the start of your second year. On your return from industry training we concentrate on your strategic management skills, getting you ready for a leadership role as a well-rounded event manager or entrepreneur.

Explore & Grow

Explore the curriculum and develop fundamental knowledge of the course.

YEAR 2

Work & Learn

Put theory into practice with hands-on industry experience with ICMS's industry partners.

YEAR 3

Develop & Excel

Gather what you have learnt from industry experience and develop your strategic management skills. Graduate management ready for a leadership role.

WHAT

will separate you from the other graduates?

An Event Management degree designed by the best, for the best

At ICMS we are connected with industry. We work with event industry professionals, including experts from the fields of event planning, project management and event sponsorship, to maintain our high standards of excellence in curriculum design. We continually review and refine our Bachelor of Event Management degree to ensure our students have the best specialist knowledge in event management to work anywhere in the world.

1,200 hours of real-industry experience

When you graduate from ICMS you'll have more than just a degree. Built into your qualification are up to 1,200 hours (9 months) of industry experience. Our industry training consultants will help place you in an organisation relevant to your studies so that after your degree you'll have an impressive CV, a network of contacts and a significant advantage over other graduates.

You'll think outside the box and outside the classroom

Theory is important, it will teach you the fundamentals you need to be an event management leader. However, nothing is as valuable as putting theory into practice. In addition to your industry training, you'll gain hands-on experience working on real events. Field trips and site visits with our industry partners will see you learning from the best in the business.

You are an industry leader in training

You won't just learn to coordinate events, we train you to be an event management leader. Combining specialist event subjects with business, we train you in the critical thinking and analytical skills you'll need to prepare for a management role after you graduate.

We're the global industry experts

At ICMS we have lecturers with international careers who are experts in the events industry. Guest lectures from our network of industry partners will keep your learning fresh and relevant and up to date with the latest demands from industry and your future employers. When you take a study tour with us, we will introduce you to key staff at international event venues like the Plaza and the Madison Square Garden in New York.
